OPAL- THE STONE WITH THE GLIMMER

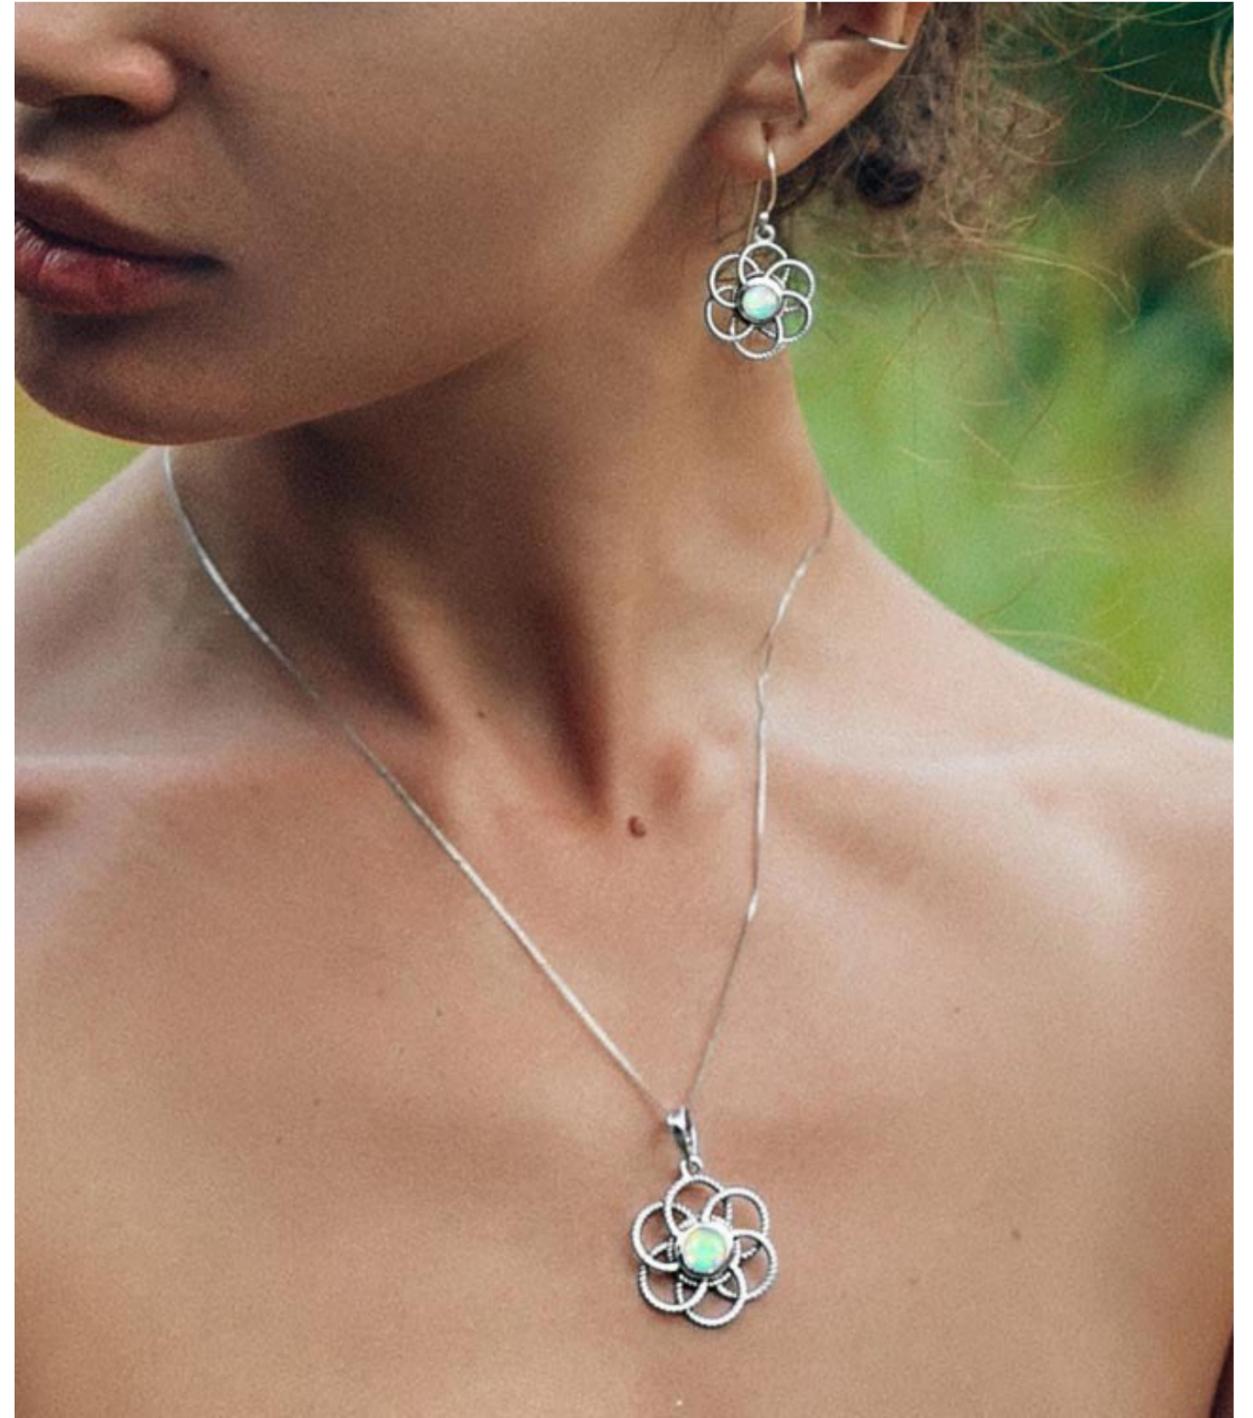

Opal is celebrated as the Queen of all gemstones in the Vedic Astrology, which embeds many healing and spiritual powers. The ambrosial crystal is also known for its translucence and transparency attributes. Opal comes in some iridescent colors like white, black, pink, orange, and many other colors. The crystal is rated between 5.5 to 6.5 on the Mohs scale of the hardness.

Most founding places of opals are Australia, Ethiopia, Mexico, and South Africa. Opals are cut and polished to create iridescent ornament accessories. In addition, it is believed wearing the opal will help you keep away from all the negative energies and evil spirits surrounding you.

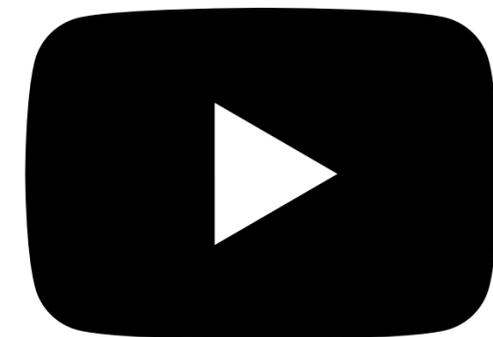

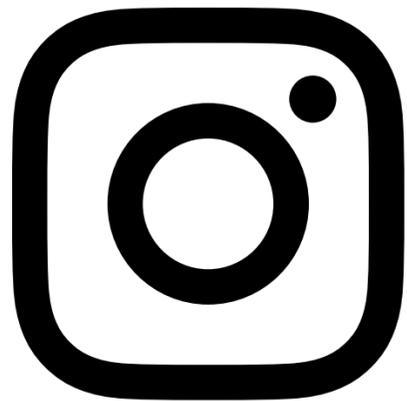

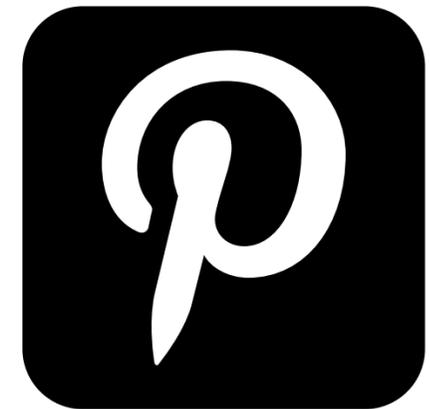

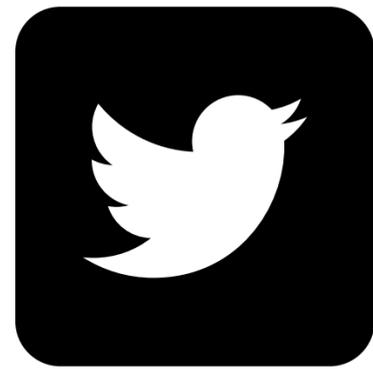

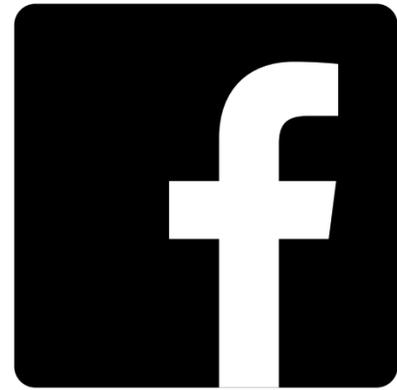

If you want to wear colors on your fingers, choosing an Opal ring will be your best option. As the crystal is widely famous for its multiple color properties. You can choose blue, black, white, yellow, brown, pink, red, and orange; it is almost available in every color. Colors fulfill our lives with love, hope, and positivity and pave a path for living life soothingly. The Opal ring allows you to grab such things in a significant manner. In addition, opal is the traditional birthstone for October-born persons, so they can permanently hold an opal ring on their hand.

Beautiful and glittery Opal enables you to beat all blood-related issues. One should wear captivating Opal Earrings to enhance the overall look. The gorgeous Opal crystal is famous for working over dormancy and sadness too. One should wear Black Opal ornaments and decrease the regenerative issue.
